

2022 Annexure

SPECIALIST PAYMENT ARRANGEMENT FOR FEDHEALTH MEDICAL SCHEME FOR 2022

1. Application

The Payment Arrangements set out in this annexure are applicable to all the benefit options of Fedhealth Medical Scheme (“the Scheme”) and to all medical treatment provided to members of the Scheme from 01 January 2022.

2. Conditions for Participation

In order to participate in this Payment Arrangement, the Specialist agrees to:

- 2.1 confirm that he/she is a Specialist practice type identified by the Scheme; and
- 2.2 adhere to the terms of the main Medscheme Specialist Agreement to which this is an Annexure; and
- 2.3 be a designated service provider (DSP) for prescribed minimum benefits (PMBs);
- 2.4 charge the Scheme tariffs as set out below for both PMB and Non-PMB conditions;
- 2.5 not charge any administration levies or co-payments;
- 2.6 agree to disclosing Specialist participation on the payment arrangement to the member and the Family Practitioner; and
- 2.7 honour pre-existing authorisations at the network rate should the participating Specialist resign from the network.

3. Fee Structure

- 3.1 The Specialist will be reimbursed according to the following tariff structure which is reflected as a percentage of the Scheme tariff:

Option name	Percentage of the Scheme tariff for both in-and out-of-hospital services
Maxima Plus	210%
Maxima Exec
flexiFED 4	165%
flexiFED 4 <sup>Elect</sup>
flexiFED 4 <sup>GRID</sup>
flexiFED 3
flexiFED3 Elect flexiFED 3 <sup>GRID</sup>
flexiFED 2
flexiFed 2 Elect
flexiFED 2 <sup>GRID</sup>	100%
flexiFED1
flexiFed1 Elect
myFED

-
- 3.2 The above tariffs are applicable to all Specialist practice types identified by the Scheme, except anaesthetists.
  - 3.3 The following services are excluded from the payment arrangement:
    - 3.3.1 Clinical pathology, facility fees, consumables and materials, medicines and surgical appliances.
    - 3.3.2 Chemotherapy and specific oncology services.
  - 3.4 The Specialist has the option to charge the member directly at the point of service as long as there is adherence to the above tariffs.

Accepted

.....

Signature

.....

Date